GED Free Course Waiver

Effective May 10, 2017, the State Board of Trustees adopted policy 804.03, authorizing colleges to award a one-time tuition and mandatory fee waiver for one course (up to four credit hours of instruction) for eligible General Educational Development (GED®) diploma recipients. Students who passed the GED® examination and obtained the certificate on or after July 1, 2002, are eligible for the waiver. The waiver may be applied at any Alabama Community College System institution except Athens State University.
